Welcome to Eastham

... Where Natural Beauty Stays on Cape Cod

HERE we are again with the same old welcoming wish, but always new,—that your vacation in Eastham be the happiest, most carefree ever. The town of Eastham has more of what it takes to make it so. And this bigger and better 1958 Handbook contains information we hope you use well for a visit that's satisfying and pleasantly memorable in the fullest measure.

For all your friends, the townspeople of Eastham.

ABOUT THIS ISSUE

ALL the usual helpful vacation information is retained in this issue. But many of the pictures of present day Eastham have given way this year so a bit of Ye Olde Eastham could be presented to you in picture and word. Some of this old data has come from books. Most has come from the memories and keepsakes of people who knew Eastham when. This brief glimpse we hope will lead you to delve in the many excellent books for a more complete understanding of Eastham's colorful yesterdays.

To all who so generously provided text and picture material the Committee extends sincere thanks.

GLIMPSES OF EASTHAM'S PAST

EASTHAM'S railroad facilities were identified closely with the town's social and economic life in the last of the 19th century and the first part of the 20th. The extension of the rail line from Orleans to Wellfleet was begun in 1869 and completed in 1870 and was in regular passenger use through Eastham until about 1940. Old timers can remember when you got on the train at Eastham and eventually arrived in Boston, a ride of about three hours if you were lucky. Nothing now remains of the depot, freight station or water tank which were located where the railroad tracks cross Samoset Road.

Old Eastham's depot was the gathering place for villagers awaiting the arrival of the night train.

EASTHAM'S TRAIN

This is the type of locomotive and cars that first traveled between Boston and Provincetown in the 1870's. When service was at its peak there were four trains daily through Eastham, two coming and two going.

Massasoit Road in the 1880's—a winding sandy way then known as West Main Street. Roof top on the right distance is the old Sam Brackett general store at the corner of Oak Road. To left, his home in the triangle of Herring Brook, Campground and Massasoit Roads.

THE ORIGIN OF EASTHAM

IT was in April 1644, exactly three hundred and thirteen years ago that seven Pilgrims gathered together to plan the town which is now Eastham. They were Governor Thomas Prentice, John Doane, Nicholas Snow, Josias Cook, Richard Higgins, John Smalley and Edward Bangs. These seven men and their families, comprising forty-nine persons were from the Plymouth Colony.

Their decision to settle here was the result of a survey made by the Plymouth Pilgrims as to the advisability of moving the entire Plymouth Colony to this location in view of the level and quite fertile farmlands. These were bordered by forests which offered protection for the rich top soil. It was concluded that there was insufficient area for the entire Plymouth Colony so that only seven families moved here to settle.

Located in this area at the time were the Nauset Indians, the most important of the Cape Cod tribes, led by Chief Sachem Aspinet. Their cornfields spread over the fertile Nauset Plains and the whole section was referred to by the Pilgrims as "The Kingdom of Nauset."

Two years later, in 1646, Nauset was incorporated and on June 7, 1651, the name was changed to Eastham. At this time Eastham included the areas covered by the present towns of Wellfleet, Orleans, Brewster and most of Chatham and Harwich.

Eastham's first town hall, with the sandy old main highway in the foreground. Located just north of the Hillside Restaurant, this building at the corner of the old county road and the present highway, is now the home of Miss Matilda Smart. Before it was the town hall the building also served as a school house.

One of the reasons the youngsters like to come to Eastham. This swimming instruction class at Great Pond is one of the groups taking advantage of the summer-long program offered free through the Recreation Commission. Miss Sharon Tarvers and assistant, Miss Elaine LaPlante, accredited instructors, lead the group in first procedures.

RECREATION AND SPORTS

BATHING

BATHING and "beaching" are the main reasons why many vacationists come to Eastham.

The Atlantic Ocean beach extends for miles and the surf here is unexcelled. Known as Nauset or the Great Beach, its broad sands invite you to relax in leisurely strolls or, between dips, just sit and enjoy the sun and music of the breakers.

While Nauset Beach is ideal for all bathers at low tide, parents of younger children may prefer to use the warmer and generally shallower bathing available on the Bay shores at high tide or in the clear, fresh water ponds.

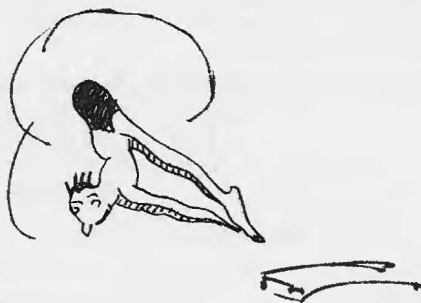

Attention Bathers! While on the Beach

DO

- 1—Call for help when you think you need it.
- 2—Report to Life Guard for First Aid Treatment.
- 3—Ask Life Guard for any information about tides, runouts, etc.
- 4—Call Orleans 117 for emergency on beach or in water.
- 5—Help us keep the beach safe and clean.

DON'T

- 1—Call for help unless you need it. That is no joking matter.
- 2—Go swimming right after eating or directly after any vigorous exercise.
- 3—Stay in sun over half hour on first exposure.
- 4—Take dogs on beach without leash.

FISHING

Fishing is one of the sports most popular with hundreds of our summer visitors. During the summer, the Striped Bass, King of salt water game fish in Cape Cod waters, is the chief source of fishing sport. Because of its unusual geographical assets Eastham's Striper fishing is hard to beat. Surf casting all along the tides at Nauset Beach attracts the experienced and the novice to the exhilarating thrill of trying for the "big ones." And charter sport fishing boats, many skippered by Eastham men, will take you from Rock Harbor in quest of Stripers offshore in the Bay. Prize tournaments in nearby towns add to the excitement of the catch.

Bluefish entice the angler too and are caught in both surf and bay in season. Flounder, tautog and a number of other good eating bottom fish make most any fishing trip from Eastham's shores something to recall happily.

Eastham's Town Cove is an excellent spot for flounder and plaice fish and trolling for Striped Bass here offers additional thrills. There are several boat liveries on the Cove shore so fishing can be fun for all the family.

From nearby Provincetown several sport fishing charter boats make runs for the Tuna which begin moving into Cape Cod waters in June. Generally they abound here until November, ranging in weight from about one hundred to a thousand pounds.

The fresh water ponds of Eastham well stocked with fish, offer the angler much added sport with rod and reel. Bass, pickerel, white and yellow perch and horned pout can be taken from these waters.

SHELLFISHING

The shellfish (clams, oysters, quahogs, and others) are not so plentiful now as in years gone by. But the Town of Eastham does plant seed quahogs in Salt Pond and here on a Sunday a pail full dug at low tide will provide an interesting activity and delicious eating. (See regulations for taking shellfish.)

MANY MORE PLEASURES

Boating, square dancing, ball games, band concerts, church suppers, auctions and fairs, food sales and other activities add to the enjoyment of visitors of all ages.

The tumbled ruin of old salt works indicates a once flourishing business along Eastham's bay and Town Cove shores. From the early 1800's to the Civil War there were numerous windmills pumping brine into evaporation vats for as many as nineteen separate salt works here. The yield in 1837 was 22,370 bushels of salt.

The New Bedford scallop dragger Cape Ann lies pounded by a wintry surf at Nauset in Eastham where she struck on March 6, 1948. Coast Guardsmen from the Eastham station saved all five men aboard. The vessel's cargo and gear were recovered but the Cape Ann herself was a total loss.

The general store of Samuel F. Brackett at the corner of Oak and Massasoit Roads in North Eastham. Asparagus farmers in the early 1900's could obtain all their equipment, fertilizers and supplies here. And their wives could buy their needles and thread and provisions here . . . and their "unmentionables" too.

EASTHAM MEMORABILIA

The first duel fought in the colony was on June 15, 1622. Two servants of Mr. Stephen Hopkins, Dowty and Lester, fought with sword and dagger; both were wounded.

John Howard Paine, author of "Home Sweet Home" was great-grandson of Eastham's Deacon John Paine.

Eastham's first meeting house was 20 feet by 20 feet with thatched roof, and holes on all sides through which muskets might be fired. It was built by Town Cove next to the old burying place.

1685—Ten shillings in silver and ten shillings worth of corn were paid as bounty by the town of Eastham for every wolf head.

EASTHAM PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Eastham Public Library welcomes summer visitors, both old and new. We have many books about Cape Cod, and a list of interesting pamphlets dealing with the Genealogy and History of our "First Families." Other books for summer reading include current fiction and mysteries.

Summer "borrowers" deposit $1.00 and receive 50c refund when all books are returned.

The library is located on Samoset Road, next to the Chapel in the Pines. Hours are 1 - 5 p.m. and 7 - 9 p.m. on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Charles Atwood Jr. and Lawrence Baker are shown pulling the famous Eastham turnips in the field of the late Harry Collins. These sweet white turnips are usually pulled from the ground during the last of October. Then buried in pits about 2½ feet wide by 3 feet deep, they are covered with seaweed or thatch to keep them from freezing, and are kept this way until marketed.

CAPE COD RECIPES

Cranberry Crunch

Mix together 1 cup uncooked rolled oats, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup flour and 1 cup brown sugar.

Cut in $\frac{1}{2}$ cup butter until crumbly.

Place half of mixture in an 8 x 8 inch greased baking dish.

Cover with 2 cups cranberry sauce. Top with balance of mixture.

Bake 45 minutes at 350°.

Serve hot in squares topped with scoops of vanilla ice cream.

Blueberry Cake

Cream $\frac{1}{4}$ cup shortening and $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar.

Add 1 beaten egg, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup milk, $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt and 1 cup blueberries (slightly floured).

Bake about 30 minutes at 375°.

Quahog Chowder

Cut $1\frac{1}{2}$ inch cube fat salt pork in small pieces and try out.

Add 1 sliced onion and brown slightly.

Add 4 cups potatoes, cut in $\frac{3}{4}$ inch cubes, and $2\frac{1}{2}$ cups hot water, 1 teaspoon salt, $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon pepper and 6 to 8 large quahogs, chopped fine.

Cook about 15 minutes. Add 4 tablespoons butter and 4 cups scalded milk.

A little of the juice from the quahogs may be added if desired.

Lobster Stew

In 3 tablespoons melted butter sauté 1 cup diced fresh lobster meat for 3 to 4 minutes.

Add slowly 4 cups scalded milk with a slice of onion. Season stew with 1 teaspoon salt, $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon paprika.

How to Boil a Lobster

In a large kettle put enough water (sea water is preferable) to cover lobsters. Add a handful of salt. Bring water to a boil then place lobsters in. Boil them for 15 or 20 minutes. If sea water is used do not add salt.

When cooked, remove lobsters from water and cut in half lengthwise on under side, using sharp knife.
